

DOMAIN NAME TRADE REQUEST FORM

1. Purpose of this form is a transfer of ownership ("trade") of the domain name :
2. By approving the trade of an existing domain name under .lu, the present holder of the domain name deletes the domain name. In order to make the trade effective, the new entity seeking registration of the domain name must subsequently submit a new application form for said domain name. This form is only used for administrative purposes. DNS-LU is entitled to reject the trade request in case the whole request or part of it does not comply with the Terms and Conditions and the Domain Name Charter of DNS-LU and / or the former holder has not approved the trade within 15 days.
3. The new holder must attach a new application form for the domain name to the transfer form, duly filled in, signed and dated. The new applicant confirms that he has clearly understood the provisions of the Terms and Conditions and the Domain Name Charter, which are an integral part of the registration contract any new holder subscribes with DNS-LU. The new holder fully approves the payment of the corresponding fees as provided in the document Fees for domain name registration: 40.- EURO, 17% VAT Incl. (14,04 EURO, 17% VAT Incl., for eligible clients) when the trade has been validated as annual subscription fees, as well as in the years to follow for the renewal of the domain name.
4. The implicated parties expressly exempt the registry from any liability for damages caused by the execution of the trade request for the domain name. In case of an arising dispute during or subsequent to the trade, the implicated parties are fully liable for any damages and/or loss and indemnify the registry against any litigation costs or damages caused thereby.
